MEET THE ILLUSTRATOR

Doris Ettlinger is a graduate of the Rhode Island School of Design and earned her MFA at the University of Wisconsin - Madison.

After an early career as an editorial illustrator, she has spent the last 20 years illustrating for children.

Tree Murals with Pre-K and Kindergarteners
Brass Castle School, Washington NJ

Doris spends her day working in her studio, walking her little black dog and teaching watercolor classes. She and her husband live in a 150-year-old gristmill on the banks of the Musconetcong River in Warren County, NJ.

SCHOOL VISITS

ABOUT THE PRESENTATION

Mt. Arlington School

Doris Ettlinger's creative process from thumbnail sketch to final art is presented to students in a twenty-five minute PPT slide show. In presentations tailored to the grade level of her audience, Doris discusses overcoming the blank page, the inspiration that comes with research, and the importance of caring about a story's characters.

Programs can be customized to focus on the subjects of her books: the pioneer experience, Pilgrims, New Jersey, or the bullying faced by the heroine of The Orange Shoes.

A drawing demonstration follows. The students may bring pencils and notebooks with them if they would like to draw along with the artist.

Paper mural projects and other hands-on activities with groups of up to 45 can be found on her web site: www.dorissettlinger.com.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

The 45-minute session includes a PowerPoint presentation and drawing demonstration.

Fee: $300 per session, or $1,000 for a full day. Add $100 for a commute over one hour from Hampton, New Jersey. For non-local visits, add travel expenses and accommodation.

Requirements:

Easel with large sheets of paper
Screen or blank wall
